DEDICATION

Because they are our friends--encouraging, advising, and contributing their warm understanding whenever we need them . . .

Because they have guided us enthusiastically and often lent us the strength for success . . .

Because they are teachers who arouse in their students a new faith in their abilities, who instill a love of truth and honor, and who, by the sincere dedication of their abilities, have inspired those about them . . .

We, the members of the 1966 senior class, are exceedingly proud to dedicate this yearbook to

MR. TROY HENRY

Every student of Stratford High School, whether he is a participant in agriculture or not, appreciates deeply the service which you have rendered the school.

MR. JOE T. BLACKBURN

The success of any school is largely dependent upon the principal of that school. We credit you, Mr. Blackburn, and your influence, for helping to guide us through the most formative years of our lives.

ADMINISTRATION

Congratulations to the yearbook staff members and your sponsor, Mrs. Jaquess, for the fine job you have done. Your annual shows you considered the task a worthy endeavor. Your creation, the Stratford School's BULLDOG for 1966, reflects your hard work and your ability. It seems to me you who do the most for your school demand the least from your school.

To the boys and girls of Stratford School, you are but tender minds to be guided before you can become farmers, engineers, fathers and mothers, citizens and loyal Americans.

But before you grow into these roles, we must give you love, motivation, and education.

For you must do a much more creative job of making life meaningful than we did.

This year Stratford High School was indeed fortunate in acquiring a music teacher, Mrs. Marjory Davis, who formerly taught in Arkansas.

On December 11, Mrs. Davis and a group of her high school students, pictured above, were privileged to attend the annual State Music Festival in the Field House at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater. Miss Bobbie Riggins, another member of our faculty, also accompanied the group.

Four thousand students from over the state, directed by Mr. Lee Kjelson, blended their voices in singing the Hallelujah Chorus and many other beautiful numbers.

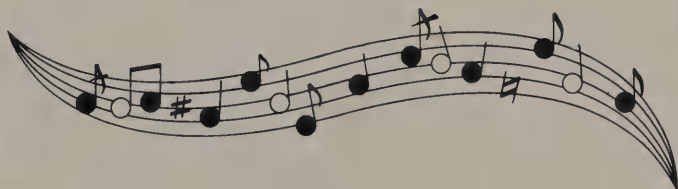

Our school received quite an honor when Jane Winn, a sophomore, was selected to participate in the All-State Chorus. She was chosen from hundreds of students from over the state. Congratulations, Jane!

ANNUAL STAFF

Editor-
In-Chief

Connie Blackburn

One fine day in the early fall, those of us on the Annual Staff decided we needed a change of environment. The change in setting, shown below, seemed to create new incentive, and we returned to Mrs. Jaquess' cubbyhole with renewed vigor.

As we continued working on the Bulldog, we found that the help of many people was needed. To those people, we wish to express our deepest appreciation...

Mr. Blackburn, our principal, for being patient and understanding,

Mr. Hughes, our superintendent, for cooperating in every way,

Mrs. Jaquess, our advisor, for helping when problems arose,

Taylor-Made Yearbook Co. for their interest and advice, and

Our Advertisers for their continuing, whole-hearted support.
